

QUALIFICATIONS

Interested in hosting a pilot of the Dress for Your Rights! program with Dr. Superle?
You're in good hands!

Dr. Superle brings extensive experience developing and facilitating school-based programs using picture books. Not only has she completed extensive research on relevant picture books and scholarship on the topic, she has also developed and delivered 3 previous rights-based literary programs (Deroche Arts Club, 2012-14; Read for Your Rights, 2017-18; Dig for Your Rights, 2022), during which she has supervised the involvement of nearly 100 UFV students.